WORK EXPERIENCE

- Research Scientist September 2024 – November 2025
Meta Platforms Inc., Sunnyvale, CA USA
 - Improved the ads online experimentation (A/B test) platform’s privacy awareness by using machine learning methods to mitigate bias and variance misspecification while handling missing data
 - Developed a SQL query generator for the next generation A/B test measurement platform to read metrics from the Infra A/B test experimentation setup (designed to balance revenue impact and hardware consumption)
 - Designed and implemented offline validation framework for A/B test AI agent to ensure correct tool invocation sequence and parameter usage
 - Developed mocked versions of tools called by the A/B test AI agent to simulate dynamic runtime behavior with deterministic outputs, reducing test latency and improving test reliability
- PhD Research Software Engineer Intern Summer 2022
Uber Technologies Inc., Sunnyvale, CA USA

Designed a deep neural network based revenue predictor in PyTorch for computationally efficient optimal budget allocation across driver incentives to maximize revenue
